Goodbye From Editors

The yearbook staff began the year with much enthusiasm and confidence in having the best Bulldog Yearbook ever. We decided to tie our yearbook together with a theme and came up with "Stepping Stones".

Even though many problems came up, we all remained optimistic. The biggest problem was getting the pictures that we needed because the laboratories never seemed to get the pictures back in time. Many a day the yearbook room buzzed till after 4:00 p.m. before a deadline, with hard working and determined staffers.

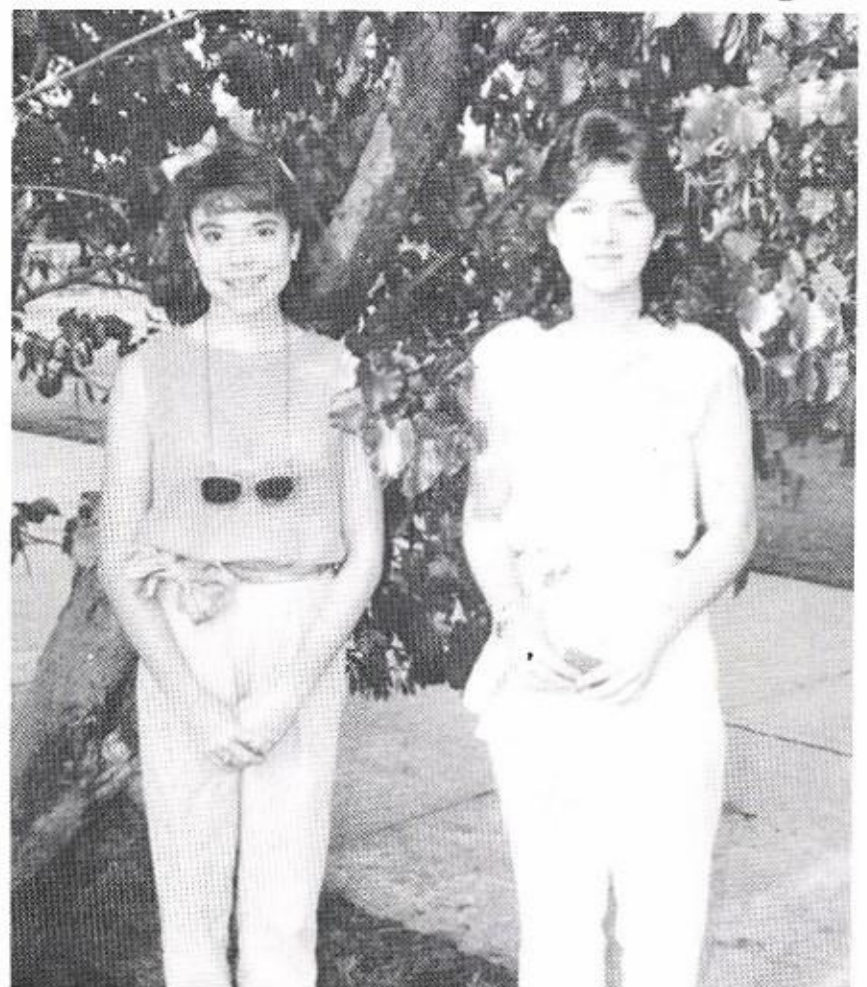

The staff depended greatly on our advisor, Ms. Argo, and would like to say "Thank You" for helping us solve our problems and for keeping us working to meet our deadlines. We would also like to thank the staff for all their hard work and dedication and for keeping smiles on their faces even when we faced some big obstacles.

"Yourbook" editors,

Melanie Stephens Norma Alvizo

In Memory of . . .

BOBBY JOE LEE

Born July 1, 1968 Died November 30, 1984

Our times together measured in years, in smiles, and in laughter and in tears, even though we only knew him for what seemed like a while. So few of us knew him from the start, but deep down inside we'll never be apart, because of the memory of him that will always remain in our heart. He was there when you were down and always fun to be around, and together the treasure of happiness we found. He was all you could ask for of a friend. Don't ever think that it's the end, for some day we'll be together, and the memories of him will last forever.

Lisa Lopez, Claudia Ramirez, Sonya Thorn, Becky Torres

1. Where's the party? 2. "Come on baby and light my fire." 3. Football players can count!?! 4. "Real cool cats." 5. "Well, I uh!!!" 6. Have a coke and a . . . smile? 7. Yes, Todd, there is a Santa.

LIFE'S ROADS

We learn
many lessons
as each day
goes by.
There are
songs to sing,
and a few
tears to cry.
There are
blessings to count,
happy memories,
too.
And sometimes disappointment
in the things
that we do.
There are cups
that run over
and years
that are lean,
With bright days
and dark days
and long nights
between.
But with one choice
we can make
as we carry
life's load,
If we look
toward the sun,
how it brightens
the road.

Senior Class Prophecies

In ten years, we see Shella Alcocer taking over Mrs. Argo's job as annual staff sponsor.

In ten years, we see Norma Alvizo still making a fuss over her own prophecy.

In ten years, we see Marla Bailey leg wrestling with Earl Campbell for the world championship.

In ten years, we see Mindy Barfknecht in partnership with Billy White working as "Stunt Woman."

In ten years, we see Hope Davis taking over Mr. Green's pre-lab class and in her spare time winning tobacco-spitting contests.

In ten years, we see Rosa Diaz as owner of Eden Pharmacy with Paul McKinzie working at the front counter.

In ten years, we see Lisa Glasscock with a cast still on her arm.

In ten years, we see Stephannie Hendricks frantically running up the church steps late for her own wedding.

In ten years, we see Danny Hernandez as head model of Chippendale.

In ten years, we see Margaret Hernandez & Family on the top 20 of Casey Cason's Count Down.

In ten years, we see Mary Keele as an accounting teacher in Abilene, Texas, and she's still single.

In ten years, we see Milissa Lehr founding the CCA-Cotton Choppers of America.

In ten years, we see Andrew Lopez as a door-to-door salesman, still selling sausage, peanuts, mums, records, and tapes.

In ten years, we see David Loveless flying the friendly skies.

In ten years, we see Kelly McKinzie as sponsor for the FPA—Future Partiers of America.

In ten years, we see Jerry Rainwater as head custodian for EHS and after hours still cruising in the blue bomb.

In ten years, we see Angie Robles as head waitress of Hard Times and still trying to talk Burr into letting her have Saturday night off.

In ten years, we see Armando Ruiz replacing Barbara Stansberry (after she had a breakdown) in advanced math.

In ten years, we see Ida Saldibar still trying to explain to her parents why she was 3 days late.

In ten years, we see Melanie Stephens still trying to get hair #467 in place.

In ten years, we see Sonya Thorn still trying to break into her own house to have a party while her parents are gone.

In ten years, we see Pearl Torres still dancing her way through Oscar's heart.

In ten years, we see Billy White as a professional "Stunt Man" getting paid to crash into trees.

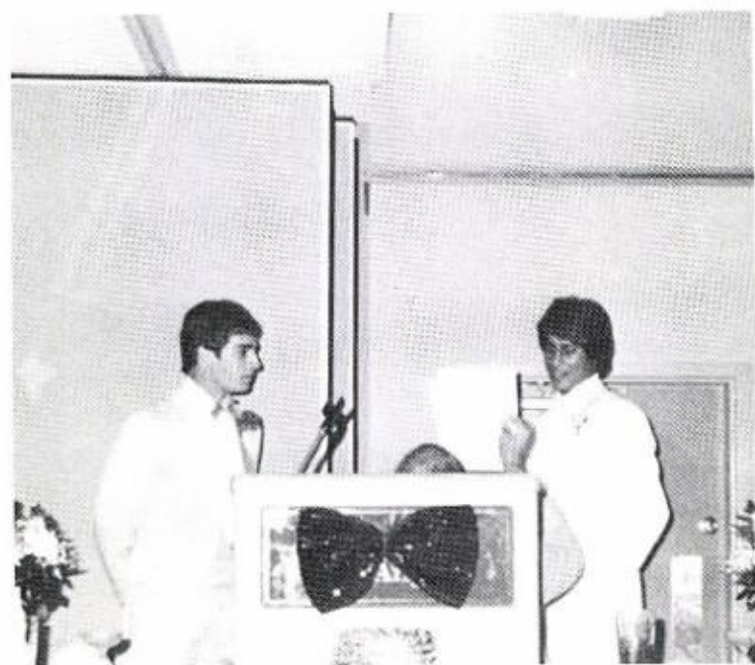

In ten years, we see Roger Zepeda crushing rocks on Alcatraz, and telling the Bulldogs how good they would have been if he had played.

In ten years, we see the Senior Class of '85 finally fulfilling Mrs. Spiller's dream, drowning in styrofoam cups.

Senior Class Wills

- I, Shella Alcocer, will my quiet personality to Paige McKinzie.
- I, Norma Alvizo, will my ability to stay out of trouble to all the Junior girls.
- I, Marla Bailey, will my "Thunderthighs" to all the guys in high school with legs smaller than mine. (Which is all the guys in high school!)
- I, Mindy Barfknecht, will my Blueberry Turnover to Cristi Medders because it is indestructible.
- I, Hope Davis, will my fighting temper in Pre-Lab to Mike Sanders.
- I, Rosa Diaz, will my thick glasses to the science lab as good magnifiers.
- I, Lisa Glasscock, will my ability to sit in class and not say a word to Paige McKinzie.
- I, Stephannie Hendricks, will my ability to "sneak" out of town with a friend and not have both of our parents out looking for us to Melody McGuffin and Cristi Medders. (I also will them my ability to tell time!)
- I, Danny Hernandez, will my tardies, absences, and my overall ambition to get to school to Rob "Punkin" Amos.
- I, Margaret Hernandez, will my black hair to Paige McKinzie so she won't be called the dumb blonde.
- I, Mary Keele, will my ability to keep my mind on work instead of the young men to Paige McKinzie, Cristi Medders, and Melody McGuffin.
- I, Milissa Lehr, will all my ex-boyfriends to Riki Murray.
- I, Andrew Lopez, will my position on the football team to Billy Escobar.
- I, Tommy Lopez, will my ability to sit through a whole day of classes and no one know I'm there to Todd and Stacy.
- I, David Loveless, will my ability to get along with Coach Baccus (most of the time) to all the Eden linemen.
- I, Kelly McKinzie, will my ability to drive out of the school parking lot without "peeling out" to Todd Sanford.
- I, Jerry Rainwater, will my ability to get to class on time to Jason Dillard.
- I, Angie Robles, will my shyness to Bryan Johnson.
- I, Armando Ruiz, will one-third of my brain to my sister Margarita, for fear that too much would be extremely dangerous to society.
- I, Ida Saldibar, will my ability to go to San Angelo for the weekend on the bus without permission to Claudia R. and Lisa L.
- I, Melanie Stephens, will my green hornet to Cristi Medders because it is fireproof.
- I, Pearl Torres, will my ability to go out with the same guy for 6 years to Cristi Medders.
- I, Sonya Thorn, will my great break-dancing moves to Johnny Escamilla.
- I, Billy White, will my ability to have my head shaved and let my hair grow back to Clif Baccus and Marvin Green.
- I, Roger Zepeda, will my senior ring to Johnny Escamilla.
- We, the Senior Class of 1985, will our ability to rule Eden High School for 4 years to Mr. Walker.

Graduation and Reception

1. Seniors try to hold the tears back during ceremony. 2. Senior boys face the future with courage and determination, not to mention smiles! 3. Eighth graders Olga Anzaldua and Brandon Mikeska received the salutatorian and valedictorian awards, respectively. 4. Eighth graders stand proudly at reception. 5. David presents a gift of appreciation and love to Ivie Spiller, Senior sponsor, on behalf of all the graduating seniors. 6. Seniors struggle to keep the smiles on their faces throughout the picture taking.

Fall Festival

"I'm Proud to be an American" was the theme of the annual Fall Festival which took place on November 3, 1984. The masters of ceremonies were seniors David Loveless and Danny Hernandez. A medley of patriotic songs was performed by Paul McKinzie, Bruce Sereika, John A. Stephens, and Mike Turner. Junior Cristi Choat presented a patriotic reading. Sharon McKinzie and Barbara Stansberry provided music for the crowning of the senior class representatives as king and queen.
